

41:1 First Reading

Two full years passed. Then Pharaoh had a dream. He was standing near the Nile,

Vayehi mikets shnatayim yamim uFar'oh cholem vehineh omed al-haYe'or.

41:2 when suddenly seven handsome, healthy-looking cows emerged from the Nile, and grazed in the marsh grass.

Vehineh min-haYe'or olot sheva parot yefot mar'eh uvri'ot basar vatir'eynah ba'achu.

41:3 Then another seven, ugly, lean cows emerged from the Nile, and stood next to the cows already on the river bank.

Vehineh sheva parot acherot olot achareyhen min-haYe'or ra'ot mar'eh vedakot basar vata'amodnah etsel haparot al-sfat haYe'or.

41:4 The ugly, lean cows ate up the seven handsome, fat cows. Pharaoh then woke up.

Vatochalnah haparot ra'ot hamar'eh vedakot habasar et sheva haparot yefot hamar'eh vehabri'ot vayikats Par'oh.
